ST. LOUIS STARTS TODAY.

They have a lot of good racing at St. Louis annually, and this year will furnish no exception to the rule. A great array of horses is gathered at the fine Fair Grounds track, and today the sport is to be set agoing with the Inaugural Handicap as the particular center of attraction. Concerning horses, prospects and sundry features the Republic of Thursday says:

"The heavy downpour of Tuesday night and Wednesday morning converted the track at the Fair Grounds into a veritable canal of mud and slush, which interfered materially with the preparation of the Inaugural candidates. Had the track been in good shape yesterday morning several doubtful starters would have received their final trials. The list of probable starters is still a large one and the indications point to a big field, no matter what the condition of the track is. The race was run over a sloppy track last year and if it rains again between now and Saturday another Inaugural will be run in the mud. Brewer Schorr's Inaugural candidate, Macy, worked a mile in 1:52 yesterday morning. The game son of Hindoo is now thought to be a sure starter and ought to give an excellent account of himself in the mud or on the dry. What'er Lou, Dr. Sheppard, Crocket and Leo Planter are all at home in heavy going. What'er Lou won the Inaugural in the mud last year. Colonel W. L. Simmons is still undecided about starting Ben Bramble. The colonel has been trying for a week to work Ben Bramble with Ed Farrell, but the latter is the worst work horse at the track. He can't be persuaded to extend himself except in a race. Ed Farrell's refusal to step fast has prevented the colonel from obtaining a line on Ben Bramble's real form up to date. Fervor's defeat of John Bright at Louisville Tuesday doesn't account for much, as it was John Bright's first start this season. He ought to give a good account of himself in his next out, and if his party sends him here to start in the Inaugural, he may prove to be the horse they will all have to beat.

"W. M. Rogers, the Philadelphia turfman, arrived at the Fair Grounds yesterday with a swell string of horses. Mr. Rogers shipped his stable here from Newport, where he 'preped' his cracks for the St. Louis meeting. Among the well-known performers in the string are Richard J., Indra, Our Gertie, Rafaello and Chemisette. Richard J. is a 4-year-old bay horse by Morello, and is considered one of the fastest sprinters in the country. Mr. Rogers has a big division of well-bred 2-year-olds. A full sister to the great Algol, by Top Gallant—Equality, is among the bunch. She is a jet black filly. Algol is a light chestnut. Another juvenile star in the stable is a bay colt by Exile—Bracken. This youngster cost $3,000 as a yearling. He belongs to a Philadelphian named Murphy. W. C. Whitney's representative was the contending bidder for this colt when he was sold as a yearling. Bracken, the dam of the $3,000 youngster, is a full sister to The Bard. One of the best looking youngsters in the stable is a chestnut colt by Miser—Olga. Mr. Rogers was favorably impressed with this young colt's work at Newport and expects great things of him. Another fine-looking chestnut colt is the half brother to Billali by Silver Fox—She. Mr. Rogers also has a nice chestnut colt by Pessara—Bradwick and a promising bay colt by Blaise Rock—Roseline. Alice Roberts and San Cecelia, a pair of 2-year-old fillies in the stable, are entered in the Debutante. Alice Roberts is a bay by Juvenal—Nut Brown, while San Cecelia is also a bay in color by Juvenal—Bassinette. Mr. Rogers thinks pretty well of a 3-year-old maiden called Young Dixon. This colt is a half brother to the famous Merry Monarch, being by Sir Dixon—Brambletta. Merry Monarch is now in the stud at Jim Ghio's place in St. Louis County.

"Willie Ham, the ex-jockey, came over from Cincinnati with W. H. Rogers' string. Ham retired from the saddle some years ago and is now a full-fledged trainer. He campaigned Mizpah at Newport this spring and will race the gelding at Chicago the rest of the year. Ham left for Chicago last night. Ham denies the report from Cincinnati that he was dissatisfied with Jockey Lamley's two rides on Mizpah at Newport. Lamley, it will be remembered, was suspended at Newport recently for pulling up a horse at the post. Lamley had the mount on one of Rogers' horses on the day he was suspended. Rogers put Lamley up to please Ham.

"If I had been dissatisfied with Lamley's riding on my own horse, I should never have recommended him to Rogers, who is an old friend of mine," said Ham yesterday. "Mizpah did run too poor races under Lamley, but the track was heavy on both occasions and the gelding never did fancy that sort of going. Mr. Rogers has nothing to do with Mizpah. W. Roach is the owner of the gelding."

"It's going to take a real good horse to win races at the Fair Grounds this season," remarked a veteran horseman yesterday. "Never before in the history of the track have I seen so many good racehorses here at the same time. The big owners like C. C. Maffitt, Barney Schreiber, Tom Ryan, John W. Schorr, W. M. Rogers, Abe and J. C. Cahn, W. W. Darden, J. S. O'Brien, John Rodegap, W. F. Schulte, Middleton & Jungbluth, Caesar Young and George C. Bennett will have representatives in every race, and the owners of crabs, hounds and beagles had better take to the bushes at once. This game around here is going to be red hot from the very start. The riding talent will be the best St. Louis has had in years. Nearly all the big stables here have crack jockeys under contract. The big owners realize that the St. Louis meeting is going to be a hard place to win at, and few of them are going to tackle it without their own riders. Schorr has Tommy Burns. Barney Schreiber will have Joe Piggott to pilot his two-year-olds. Charles Thorpe and the crack lightweight Devin will ride for Burns & Waterhouse. Tom Ryan has Rutter. Powell will probably pilot Bennett's horses. Jenkins, the latest crack developed at San Francisco, is coming to work for Charles Van Studdiford. Colonel W. L. Cassidy has a retainer on Lines. Caesar Young has first call on Eddie Jones. Southard is under contract to the Maffitt stable, while Holden will be on hand to ride for Jim Arthur. That's a bunch hard to beat. Any horseman racing at St. Louis this year without a retainer on some good rider is going to find himself at a serious disadvantage."

ABUSING RACEHORSES.

Commenting editorially on an incident of the recent Aqueduct meeting, the Horse Fancier very correctly points out a feature of racing that lies easily within the power of racing judges and stewards to eliminate. The article in question says:

"While the sporting scribes in the daily papers last week poured forth all sorts of imputations against Maher, the jockey, for brutally beating the colt Neponset over the head when he bolted in a race at Aqueduct on Tuesday, not one has put the blame where it really belongs, and that is upon the shoulders of the stewards. Such acts have been passed over far too often in other years, and Maher is by no means the only boy who has offended in this respect. That his performance of Tuesday was made possible, or that he dared attempt it, however much he was provoked, is due solely and simply to neglect of a plain duty upon the part of the stewards of the day upon previous occasions, to punish summarily and severely the jockey who so far forgot himself as to maltreat an unfortunate dumb beast and to outrage the sensibilities of every onlooker. Every such incident occurring upon a racetrack is due to lack of discipline from the stewards, and any condonation of such offence is proof positive of their incompetency. That the offender is a leading jockey makes it but the more essential that his penalty shall be a serious one, and such as would without doubt have been laid upon an unfortunate apprentice or 'deckhand' had he been the one in fault.

"Aside from this noticeable instance of abuse, there will not infrequently be seen cases at our leading racetracks, where beaten horses are flogged and spurred when far back in the rack, and horribly punished simply because they have not run as well as the rider and his betting friends had anticipated. It is safe to predict that neither of the luckless dead-heaters of Tuesday will recover from their grueling in a hurry, if, in fact, they ever do. If repeating two-year-olds at five furlongs in May be sport, then deliver us from all forms of racing."

"What with being broken in about half the time the task should occupy; tried as yearlings and re-tried, at all sorts of preposterous distances; mauled about at the post, jerked and flogged; punched and whipped and when they have no earthly chance of winning; raced frequently when sore, and in the case of youngsters, 'bucked,' and raced ten times when they should start once; no wonder the most important part of a trainer's outfit is a pair of blinkers, and no marvel that the form of our horses is as bewildering as it is changeable—for how can any horse give his true running when, the moment he strikes the stretch, the memory of past butchery impels him to look for a hole to dive into?"

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A dispatch of Friday from New York says: "Mr. Sydney Paget has decided to race his stable at Morris Park, and Jean Beraud will be seen in the Withers on Saturday. The colt has not grown much since last year, but he has the same determined bulldog style of going and should carry his speed over the mile route. The work for the Withers Stake has created quite a stir among the racing element at Morris Park this morning. The historic event is conceded by many to be between Rogers & Rose's colt Lothario, who covered a mile very handily in 1:41, and Beraud. The Messrs. Morris were not very far off the mark when they offered Rogers & Rose $12,000 for Lothario last year, after he had defeated their crack colt, Filigrane, in the Champagne Stakes over seven furlongs. Jean Beraud covered a mile in nice shape in 1:42. If this colt is thick in the wind, as has been reported, he did not show it this morning, as he worked like a sound racehorse. Fleischmann Sons' smart pair, Alpen and Sir Hubert, covered a mile in 1:43. Ahom, Pittsburg Phil's candidate, has been in preparation for the Withers for the past week. He covered a mile and a quarter in 2:18. J. W. Rogers' Rhineland covered a mile in 1:45. R. W. Walden's Latchkey covered six furlongs in 1:16."

FRANK THOMPSON'S GOOD RACE.

The second day at Lakeside was a mild one. The card was light and the racing as a rule was tame. The first five favorites won and the syndicate ring must have suffered.

There was one exciting piece of racing. It came out of the second event, which was a six furlongs selling affair. The race was conceded to be between Meddler and Maceo and the pair furnished one of the most keenly contested finishes ever seen at the track. Meddler, formerly a notoriously bad actor, went to the outside at the post, and, behaving well, managed to get away second, closely followed by Maceo. The latter went to the front in the first sixteenth, and passing the half-mile post, was a neck in front of Meddler, with Fred Barr third a neck away. On the far turn Meddler changed position with Maceo and led him by a neck into the stretch. Above the eighth post Maceo moved up on even terms with Meddler and from there to the wire the pair had it hammer and tong. Meddler was on the outside and Clay seeing T. Knight had little or no chance to use his whip crowded in close up to Maceo as he could, and in a terrific finish landed his mount a winner by a short head. Maceo was undoubtedly the best, and with a stronger boy up could not have lost. Little Singer, who finished third in the race, was practically left at the post and ran a smashing good race.

The nearest approach to good class horses was seen in the fifth event. It was at one mile and had six starters, among them being Frank Thompson, Donna Rita and Fonclif. The ring at one time laid 2 to 1 and take your pick of the three, but when the market settled Frank Thompson was an 8 to 5 choice. He proved to be the right selection and won in rather an impressive manner. Knight rode him, and, getting off last, was compelled to go all around the field. The colt, however, was fit and good, and by the time the stretch was reached he was in front, where he remained to the end, winning by three-quarters of a length from Donna Rita. Hosi was a bang-up third, and should be a winner before long. Fonclif, after showing much speed, quit as if short and finished fourth.

Myth was in a soft spot in the third race, which was a dash of a mile. On the strength of his race the day before he looked a certainty and was backed accordingly at 1 to 2. There was little or nothing to the race. The Kittleman gelding broke second but went to the front on the first turn, and, leading the entire route by a big margin, won as he pleased. This horse is much better than the kind he had to beat in this race.

Ex-Jockey Johnny Murphy captured the initial purse with his Deceiver—Giddy Girl colt, Eschscholtzia. The colt got away in front, and but for an instant on the far turn, when Mission showed in front, had things all his own way.

Blue Lick, after much interference and under bad handling, won the fourth race in easy style. He was hampered several times down the back stretch, but came through on the inside in the last quarter and was about three lengths in front of his field at the end. Thanksgiving and Cuirassier had a battle royal for the place, the former getting the verdict by a short head.

Eleven of the lowest class horses at the track made up the field for the last race and the winner turned up in Wild West, thanks to Jockey Nutt, who was fortunate in getting a running start.

Several of the Chicago and Louisville base ball players were visitors and all did well in picking the winners.

Winner—B. c, by Deceiver—Giddy Girl.
Off at first break to a good start. Won easily; second well in hand. It was a hard drive for third place. Eschscholtzia was the best and best seasoned. He was outrun on the far turn but easily overhauled Mission in the stretch. The latter ran a greatly improved race over the one of the day before. Ravenswood is a grand looker. He should improve from this race. Frangible ran green. It was all Flick tried to keep him from running into the fence on the far turn. Both Jeff and Nathan Hale tried to run out.
Eschscholtzia, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Mission, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Ravenswood, show, 4 to 5. Frangible, place, evens; show, 2 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g, by Long Taw—Meddle.
Post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won in a long, hard drive of two. Maceo was the best but Clay cleverly outfinished T. Knight. The pair had it nip and tuck the last furlong. Meddle is good and seemed to possess more gameness than ever before. He is nowhere near as bad an actor at the post as he used to be. Maceo had plenty of speed and at one stage in the stretch seemed to be winning. Knight did his best but was not heavy enough to help much at the finish. Little Singer ran a cracking good race. She was practically left at the post and made up a lot of ground. Uncle ABB was bumped and jostled at the start and knocked out of it. He came with a rush at the end. Kamin's wind is affected. He looked to have a chance at the head of the stretch but quit badly at the end. Stanza acted badly at the post.
Overweights—Bloodhound, 3 pounds.
Corrected weights—Cochise, 109.
Meddle, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Maceo, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Little Singer, show, 4 to 1.

Winner—Ch. g, by Kallierates—Paradox.
Off at first break to a good start. Won easily; second very easily. Myth had speed to loan and lost his field going the first half. He is in rare form just now and was in a soft spot. Marito got the place as easily as Myth won. Vitaoe saw he had no chance, so did not urge the filly the last quarter. Admetus was hard ridden all the way. He ran a dull race. Dalgretti made a bid on the far turn, but fell away again. Uдах is best at the jumping game.
Scratched—11849 Dr. Marks, 107; 11849 Sunburst, 111.
Myth, place, out. Marito, place, 2 to 1; show, 7 to 10. Admetus, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—B. c, by Daniel—Blue Bells.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily after an early drive. Blue Lick was much the best. He was interfered with on the back stretch and obliged to take the long route. Flick punished him hard from the half-mile post to the head of the stretch, after that the colt had everything his own way. Thanksgiving was about the only one in the race that was not interfered with. This explains her being so far in front the first part of it. She quit on the turn for home, but came again under Vitaoe's hard punishment. Cuirassier ran a fair race, and Crossmolina a bad one. The former pulled up lame. Bright Night was bumped into and almost knocked down at the start. Nailier went to the post lame.
Corrected weights—Long Dandy, 95.
Blue Lick, place, out. Thanksgiving, place, 5 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Cuirassier, show, 7 to 5. Crossmolina, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. h, by Linden—Verbena.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second and third were driving. Frank Thompson was a good horse today. He was off last and obliged to run around his field. Judging from this performance he will be a hard horse to beat from now on. He could have won further off. Donna Rita, badly outrun the first part of it, finished with a tremendous rush. She does not like weight. Hosi ran an excellent race. The ride on him was very bad. This horse is good and can win when placed right. Fonclif was short. He was off flying, and had he been ready might have won. This race will do him good. Stockholm showed considerable speed. He was lost, though, when the real racing began in the stretch.
Scratched—11489 Harry Nutter, 97.

Post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won handsly; the next three were driving. Wild West got a flying start and was never in trouble. Nutt took no chances, though, and won as far off as he could. Pool ran a fair race and can win from the same kind. Cherry Bounce II. was worn out chasing Wild West the first part of it. It was a poor lot and the first three always had it between themselves. The Plutoct seems to be of no account.

Scratched—9606 Pitfall, 109.
Wild West, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Pool, place, 3 to 1; show, evens. Cherry Bounce II., show, 1 to 2.
